

HSKK Level 4 (Intermediate) Speaking Test

Level Description

The HSKK Intermediate Speaking Test assesses the extent to which candidates are able to express themselves orally in Chinese at an intermediate level. This level corresponds to Levels III and IV of the Chinese Language Proficiency Scales for Speakers of Other Languages, as well as Level B of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Candidates who successfully pass the HSKK Intermediate Speaking Test are able to understand intermediate-level Chinese and communicate relatively fluently with native Chinese speakers.

Who Is This Test Recommended For?

HSK Level 4 Speaking primarily assesses candidates' ability to communicate fully and coherently in daily life, study, and work situations. Candidates are expected to master approximately 2,000 vocabulary items, express personal opinions clearly, describe events, and engage in simple discussions while maintaining coherence and basic accuracy in more complex situations.

HSK Level 4 Speaking is primarily intended for candidates taking the HSK Level 4 examination.
